A large contingent of Rotarians and partners visited the Sale Military Museum last meeting. We enjoyed an army mash supper, raised $60 in fines and received a presentation from local military historian, Mark Riggs. Mark spoke about the history and involvement of the armed services in Sale and Gippsland. Since 1885, with special mention of the air bases which were involved in Bass Strait patrols during World War II, and also used as training grounds for pilots with many accidents and deaths recorded on a display map in the museum.

Volunteers man the facilities and the museum is looking for more community support in this area. The museum is open 9am – 4pm Friday to Monday and there is a $2 entry donation.

Our own Di Rowarth was the 1000th visitor last Tuesday for which she received a cap.

CLUB CHANGEOVER

The 95th Rotary International Convention in Osaka, Japan, not only went down in the books for its record-breaking attendance figures, but it is also notable for doing so just one year before Rotary's highly anticipated 2005 centennial convention in Chicago is expected to do the same.

With 45,595 paid registrants from 112 countries, the Osaka gathering easily toppled the record that was last set in 1978, again in Japan, where the Tokyo convention drew 39,834 faithful.

Dr. Genshitsu Sen, chair of the 2004 Osaka Convention Committee, officially opened the festivities in the Osaka Dome arena by praising RI President Jonathan B. Majiyagbe's Lend a Hand theme as a means of fostering peace on Earth. "There is a tremendous spirit and fellowship in Rotary today. Rotarians have the heart, the hands, and the body to cure many of the world's ills," he said.

President Majiyagbe likened Rotary service to the four seasons, which he used as his convention background theme. "Every new season brings a new challenge, a new set of goals, a new inspiration to cast off the old and begin afresh.... In the mirror of the seasons we see reflected some the great lessons and challenges of Rotary, and those challenges will never become less."

The convention gave Majiyagbe the ideal opportunity to thank the Rotary family not only for his year in office, but for the outpouring of support he received following the death of his wife, Ade, in June 2003. He also expressed gratitude for contributions to Ade's Hope Fund for the Education of Women and Children, totalling approximately US$370,000. "I have seen that the Rotary family is one filled with so much love, it can gather the entire world in its embrace," Majiyagbe said.
