Last Meeting

By the Editor

Chris O’Kane spoke from “behind-the-badge at the last meeting. Born in 1955 in Yarrowonga, Victoria he had one sister and lived on a farm with his parents. He attended the local primary school and then Assumption College Kilmore where working in the tuckshop he was urged to do special deals on cream buns and similar items by a person who later became known as “Crackers” Keenan. Chris did not reveal whether he actually did the deals. He did medicine at Monash and then worked at various hospitals and in general practice before settling in Sale.

The guest speaker was Michelle Wright from Centrelink. She told us that Centrelink had 6.3M customers, makes 9.6M payments, handles 140 different products for 25 government departments including Family and Community Services, Employment and Workplace Relations etc. She gave us a broad description of pension payments and eligibility tests and the method to obtain a health care card or a pension bonus.

The fines collected by Acting Sergeant Ron Gregory amounted to $41.80. The meeting concluded at 8.30pm.

President’s Report

President Les made the following points:

- ❖ There is $100 in the fines box tonight as a refund from Jason on the dinner at the Old Drill Hall last week. Jason was thanked for this with acclamation.
- ❖ Les needs the Director’s reports for the Changeover ASAP.
- ❖ A card has been sent to Lyn Chilcott in Gippsland Base hospital. She had an operation on the day of the meeting.

Rural Medical School

Michael Page advised the meeting that he had recently attended the opening of the School at the hospital and said how impressed he was by it. He said further that it was clear to all present that the school was the brainchild of our own Hugo Huygens and he was to be strongly congratulated for his vision and effort. The meeting acknowledged Hugo with acclamation.

CLUB CHANGE OVER

Tuesday 6 July at Sporting Legends (Enter by rear door). $30 per head for a two-course meal. 6.30pm for 7.00pm. Music

Personal

The Secretary advised that charter member Michael Rumpff will be resigning at the end of June to move to Melbourne.

Movie Afternoon for Seniors

The Secretary further advised that he had received a number of letters of thanks for the movie afternoon organised by the club for senior citizens on Sunday 30 May.

House Project

There are still delays with obtaining title to the land. It is expected that the project will start in the next few days.
