** Club Meeting
Last Meeting

By The Editor

Michael Rumpff, one of the few remaining Charter members who is resigning with effect from 30 June to move to Melbourne, gave an emotional farewell speech to the meeting. He has been in Sale for 30 years having originally planned to stay only 3 months on a pharmacy locum. He told us that his favourite actor was Jack Nicholson especially in About Schmidt, the story of a retired grump. Michael identifies with this character. He has been a partner in Findlay and Waymouth for many years. This firm now has 100 employees. He especially enjoys giving on-the-job training to school kids. In the immediate future he plans to rest, see more of Australia and the world and will travel to India and Germany in the not too distant future. He said finally how much he appreciated being a member of this club.

The meeting responded to Michael’s address with acclamation.

Jim Pennell spoke in the “behind-the-badge series at the last meeting. He told us that he was off to the UK next Sunday. He has only been to the US before and had a lovely time touring around California. He was surprised with the amount of military hardware he saw in the sky and on water. While in the UK he will be taking a bus trip up to Scotland. He will travel to Ireland and then spend four days in Paris on the way home.

GLASSES EVENING AT LEO MORRISSY’S – MONDAY 5 JULY AT 7.30PM

Changeover Dinner

The next meeting is the changeover dinner. The cost for a two course buffet is $30 per head. If you haven’t signified your attendance please contact Trevor Watt on 5144 6262. Remember that the dinner will be held at Sporting Legends in Yorke Street but you need to enter the venue by the back door. Chairman for the evening is Rob McKimm and he has challenged us to wear a
