1. Des Phillips reports

Ride to Conference update- riders arriving in Sale on Sunday the 6th of February. Arriving at 5:00pm at Little's Bus depot to drop their bikes and stuff. Then up to Gippsland Grammar for showers etc. Then onto the Princeton for finger food at ? per head. There will be a need to billet 1 or two riders per member on the night of the 6th Feb. Our work is to get them in a bed, fed in the morning, taken to Little's Bus depot by 7:00 next morning (the 7th of Feb) to wave them good-bye. Please leave your acceptance on the running sheet that I have passed around.

NOTE There are 7 couples on the ride.

2. Secretary Brian Norris reports

Secretarial matters- We hope to have a "full roll-up from the club" for the Feb 23rd Centennial dinner at the Princeton. The membership Master list is circulating the meeting. Of course it is under privacy regulations. Medallions are being sold at $19.95. A poster is being offered to members to leave at their work advertising the 100 years of Rotary.

3. Michael Page reports

Our Henna update-

Henna is in her 2nd week at Merimbula with the McKimms. She has moved from the Chalmers residence to Des and Jeans place. She is "off to another camp" in Rawson on the 29th of January. She will be involved in the ride to Shepparton Conference, being involved in a triangle with Les and Mary.

We are accepting nominations for the 2005 RYLA or Youth Leadership awards nominations that will close on the 28th of January. The Siemens summer camp is on again.

4. Les Jackson reports

Les and Mary need sponsorship- Mary and I are going to the Ride to Conference and we are expected to raise $1500 each in sponsorship. The sponsorship goes toward life education or Shelter boxes. As we know, the Shelter boxes are desperately needed in the Asian region. Shelter boxes donations are tax deductible

5. Val Braham reports

Lawn care update and other matters-The Sale of our new house is being negotiated for a price of $235,000. This venture will return to the club a profit of approx $15,000. Contract signatures will occur any day, the purchaser wants to move in on the 24th of January?

Please note we have all failed as Gardeners! Photos are now being circulated of grass seed being thrown around by members!!

6. Trevor Watt reports

Fees of $175 are now DUE. The only one person who has paid is Eddie!!

BTB

The future of BTB (Behind the Badge) is still being decided.

It has been suggested that the assigned person or victim gives a 3 minute talk on their partner BTB.s!! Perhaps we could start alphabetically, hello Dallas Andrew!!
