Peter Kluge-scribe meeting 1365

Scott Rossetti U.S.A. Study Trip

Listening to your talk, and being your scribe I can't help but think, here is a big chip off the old block.

The course: Master of e Business

The Trip: Business Globalisation – U.S.A.

The Presentation:

How envious we all were not to be on this study tour.

Scott and Caroline started the tour with a bang – New Years Eve in Times Square, New York. Patience is not Scott's virtue, as the sole purpose of being in Times Square on New Years Eve was to see the ball drop. Scott could not wait and had a merry time at an Irish pub.

Washington blew Scott away. Viewing all of the former U.S. Presidents and reading of their history was one highlight. Visited George Washington's old homestead, and his tomb. He also saw the White House and wherever the President went, a heavy police guard was present.

Another visit to New York, sites on this visit included:

- Stock Exchange
- Statue of Liberty
- Central Park, where he tried his skill at ice skating
- Inspected the former World Trade Centre site and was quite moved by his experience

Scott's presentation, backing his talk was very professional and enjoyed by all. So far no study talk of daytime activities but the Rossetti's came alive at night.

- Visited an Italian restaurant where future opera singers were performing
- Another venue featured female and male belly dancers
- At another venue he became an authority on breast transplants, as he can now judge size and shape (mainly by touch)
- 2.00 am discos
- Complaining after 4.00 am, as no bars were open

Scott and Caroline did you ever sleep?

Back in Washington: Scott showed photos of an empty lecture hall (the hall of learning). It was wonderful to hear that the lecture tour was so strenuous that Scott and Caroline detoured to Kuala Lumpur on the way home and had a wonderful rest before departing for Australia.

Scott we are all envious of your tour. Mainly because most of us are too old to survive such a wonderful trip.

A top presentation by Scott was enjoyed by all.
