Clean Up
Australia Day

Clean Up Yeagerup Day

Want to volunteer and help us clean up Yeagerup, one of the natural icons of the Shire of Manjimup with beautiful jarrah and peppermint forests, the wonder of the inland Yeagerup Dunes and the untouched Yeagerup Beach?

We need teams for rubbish collection along Ritter Road from Lake Yeagerup, across Yeagerup Dunes and down to Yeagerup Beach. Bring your own 4WD or we can provide transport to sections if required.

A sausage sizzle will be held afterwards, please BYO water and drinks, hats, sunscreen, insect repellent and sensible footwear.

Sunday
4 March
3.00pm

The Yeagerup Trust is a not-for-profit community group set up to:

- Monitor the impacts of recreational use on the Yeagerup area
- Measure the rate of dune movement & provide photographic evidence
- Produce and maintain fauna and flora species lists for Yeagerup area
- Educate local residents and visitors to the area about the D'Entrecasteaux and Warren National Parks
- Assist in the conservation of flora & fauna species in Yeagerup area
